

Marina Location/Directions

Research Vessel Stenella is docked at the New Port Cove Marine Center

Location is along US-1 (also called Broadway or Federal Highway 1) between 45th Street and Blue Heron Boulevard. Riviera Beach is just north of West Palm Beach.

Departure from the marina is Tuesday at approximately 9:00 am

We will begin boarding between 8:00 – 8:30 am

Please arrive by 8:30; if you are leaving a car at the marina while you are on the trip, look at the marina map to see where the parking lot is located.

We return to port on the following Thursday around 10:30 am

Booking Returning Flights:

R/V Stenella is scheduled to return to Florida on Thursday of the week following your departure. Typically we clear customs at about 9:00-9:30 am and are docked around 10:30 am. All passengers must de-board within an hour of arrival at the dock.

Occasionally there is a slight delay, so if you are planning on booking your flight the Thursday you get back into the marina, we suggest you book your return flight from 12 pm or later to avoid being late for your flight on Thursday. We are typically in cell phone/Internet range as of Wednesday evening prior, so you can be in touch directly by phone or email.

Book outgoing flights after 12:00 pm to avoid missing you flight due to delay incoming.
